Junk Yard Garden Art Competition – New in 2022

Has the recent Sculptures Outback gallery exhibition along the Warrego Highway or the Lake Dunn Sculpture trail left you inspired to make your own piece of garden art? Launching in 2022 is Wallumbilla's own Junk Yard Art competition. Use your creative talents and recycled, reused, reclaimed or discarded items to create unique garden art items.

- Entries must be the competitor's own work.
- Entries must not have one a previous prize at the Wallumbilla Show.
- Mailbox and sculpture items are to be self supporting.
- Wire art items that are not self supporting should be able to be hung.
- All entries are to be presented to the pavilion before 12pm on Friday 29 th April.
- Stewards have the right to enter an item into a different category if deemed necessary.

Masks Alive

We're ditching the critters this year and bringing the masks to life.

Lets face it there is no shortage of surgical masks around at the moment so why not decorate one!

You can use any medium as long as it relevant to the class – paint, felt pens, sequins ,feathers, stickers , pom poms, paper. But please keep it within a reasonable size (height and width).

Class 1;	Kindy / Prep	Rainbow
Class 2;	1 & 2	Something with Wings
Class 3;	3& 4	Animal of Choice
Class 4;	5 & 6	Under the Sea
Class 5;	7 & 8	About our Town
